BELL PUNCH MEETS DEFEAT.

Tom Ryan's Badge—Bellegarde colt, Bell Punch, twice a winner since his arrival at Harlem, deceived his owner and the public yesterday. He met defeat at the hands of Forbush in the six and one-half furlong race for all ages.

Milwaukee was scratched so that Tom Harris' boy, Tommy Burns, could ride the Ryan colt. The Punch looked enticing and a rush was made or the early odds of 5 to 1. Forbush opened around 2 to 1 and drifted to 2 1/2 to 1. Then he was backed and closed about 11 to 5. Schorr's lightweight, Kitley, a promising youngster, rode Forbush and, getting off in the first flight, won with something to spare. Bell Punch is a loafer and Burns could not do him justice.

The afternoon's general racing was less than buoyant. The only close finish came out of the eight and one-half furlong selling race, which Heidelberg won. Admetus, the choice, was played for a good thing. Caywood rode him, and going to the front early led by daylight to the sixteenth pole. There Admetus began to wobble and Heidelberg's rush smothered him.

Ben Hadad seemed to be in clover for the five furlong two-year-old event. He got a running start and played with his field. Billy Mason finished second but was disqualified for fouling Graziella.

Brightie S had a easy task in the opening five furlong two-year-old race and Crystalline had no trouble to beat the band in the other two-year-old race.

Farley, perhaps the best weight carrier at the track, was favorite for the closing race and won it as he pleased.

Col. Clark received a telegram from the east yesterday stating that if races for two and three-year-olds could be arranged Ornament and John Madden's good two-year-olds would be shipped to Harlem.

provement of the breed of thoroughbred horses through the medium of trials of speed and otherwise; the settling of differences between members, and the promoting of more enlarged and friendly intercourse among all classes of men engaged in the owning, training, racing or riding of thoroughbred horses.

"We have no fights with any one." Moore declared, "and we do not want any. We wish to be on friendly terms with the press and the racing associations. We will not rake up any dead issues or take up the personal grievances of an individual member. We believe that the interests of racing can be better promoted by united effort and that the interests of individuals will be more respected when it is known that there is an organization capable of giving to them ample protection."

Committees will be appointed to confer with the racing associations about matters at variance with the horsemen's ideas. Among those present at the meeting were:

Winner—B. f. by Deceiver—Exclusion.
Start fair. Won driving; second driving also. Smyle tiptoed her field. She is a fast filly and can beat better ones. Lela B did not run her race. Burn't Foot was under a drive the last three furlongs.

Scratched—Florie, 100.

Winner—Ch. f, by Argyle—Ouse Bright.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second cleverly; third and fourth driving hard. Brightie S spreadeagled her field and ran a real good race. It was much better than her recent performance. She got away running though and met with no grief. Gilt Edge had a stormy journey. She was bumped and obliged to pull up shortly after the start. Watch Frances McClelland. This race will do her good. Condon is not a good colt. He ran his race. Shipman showed a lot of speed, but tired badly. He likes a short route and light weight. Stars and Stripes was sharply interfered with early. Throw her race out.
Scratched—Hindoo Queen, 102.

Winner—Ch. c, 3, by Teuton—Sophronia.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won in a long, hard drive; third and fourth driving as hard. Heidelberg just got up in the last jump. He was coming and Admetus stopping on the end. Caywood made a trifle too much use of Admetus. He was the best and should have won. Ovation weakened when the pinch came. She was overweighted. Why ran to the notch. Rudolph is a bad horse these days. He got off none too well, but would not try. Santa Cruz can win a three-quarter race on a soft track. Burns saved ground with Ovation. Had he not Why would have been third.

Winner—B. f, by Simon Magnus—Crystal.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; the next six were driving hard. Crystalline had the foot of the party. Barrett got her away flying though, and she always had clear sailing. She is faint hearted and likes to race in front best. She spoiled Fred Broen's courage going the first half. The latter ran his race. Ruskin, as is alleged, worked three-quarters in 1:14. On this report he was heavily played. Coralis needed a race. The same kind will have a hard time beating her from now on. Tom Calvert finished strong. Watch him at three-quarters. Miss Hoy is ready for soft going.

Winner—B. g, 2, by Free Knight—Isabella.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won with something to spare; second driving to the limit; third and fourth doing their best. Forbush had an easy race. Kitley rated him along nicely and sat perfectly still when Bell Punch got to him at the head of the stretch. Bell Punch is game. Burns was hard at work with him all the way. He seems to be a loafer and wants a strong boy. Trilby had no excuses. She got away flying and was well handled. Terramie finished strong. She is an in and out. Free Fun was badly cut down and if she is not destroyed, will not race again. Marie Woodlands appeared stiff and sore and would not extend herself in the race.

Winner—B. c, by Hindoo—Alga.
Post 12 minutes. Start good. Won easily. The next four were driving hard. Ben Hadad had a world of speed. He was by far the best. The colt was unruly at the post, but got away well and galloped the entire route. Billy Mason, much used at the post, ran a good race. Sloan controlled him well at the post. With clear sailing Depending would have been a keen contender. He was hemmed in at the start, ran a long race and was generally buffeted about the head of the stretch. He finished like a lion. Graziella had a rough road. Judge Quigley ran his race at the post. Candleblack needs a strong jockey. The patrol judge reported that Billy Mason crossed in front of Graziella about the eighth pole. Mason was disqualified for the foul.

Post 10 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second with something to spare; third and fourth driving. Farley was the best. Arlington took the long route. He was cut off shortly after the start and obliged to go around the field. He likes a route. Watch him. He is ready and a certainty on a soft track. Tony Honing, as usual, was right there. Tin Cup could not carry the weight. She got away well. Simmons can do better. Purse Proud was cut off and obliged to pull up on the turn. Watch him, too.
